Dear Douglas and Mary:

Doris mentioned visiting Maritain this week and then coming here to Washington. Would you tell her to bring along all the old versions of the poems Gabriela published in LAGAR and also all the versions of the poems Gabriela rejected when she was preparing Lager?

For microfilming they will have to be put in better order than they are now and I can do that down here.

I have written to the Rockefeller Foundation requesting funds for the microfilming and hope to have an answer soon.

If that doesn't work out I think I can get money from the Catholic University.

I thought it better to write to you since I don't know where to reach Doris. I phoned her sisters apt. tonight but no answer.

If there is any other material that has to be put in order I might have time to do that here.

I hope Doris is well and that you have weathered <sup>all</sup>tequila.

Cordially,
M. B.
