Dear Miss Daves:

I enclose a note I have just sent to Aguilar informing them that in two weeks I hope to be able to send them my introduction and the variant notes. These are to be appendices. Therefore if they are in a hurry to begin the third edition they can once the contract with Doris is signed because the bulk of this third edition, pp. 1-709, will have no changes, only the correction of errata. I have been phoning Doris all week. Her cousin's husband tells me she is probably away.

I do hope you have enjoyed your Easter vacations.

Very sincerely yours,

Margaret Bates
