Dear Doris:

Have you seen Ciro Alegria's GABRIELA MISTRAL INTIMA? I haven't but I have ordered it. I knew his son, Alonso, in Peru when he was about 7 years old, also his first wife Rosalia, a Peruvian, and a lovely person.

When I left you after lunch I went back to my car and had to wait twenty minutes to get out of that parking space...an immense truck was stalled right in front of THE MODERN LANGUAGE BOOK STORE...and you will recall the heat of that day!!! I hope the third edition has been catalogued by now. As soon as I have a minute I will check on it.

I think your idea of putting on tape comments is very good. It would even be better to make it in videotape, expensive, but you could send it to radio stations. I would not trust any interviewer with the right to edit the tape.

School has begun and the mad waves inundate.

Mucho love.
M. B.
