Dear Doris:

Many thanks for the clippings that you sent me. I am returning the original from the N. Y. Times since my sister sent it to me. She said it's too bad the book is put out by a Univ. Press because they have not salesman, nothing. The Dept. stores NEVER have books by Univ. presses...not enough profit and stores like Brentano hardly bother. Before her husband's stroke she used to buy books for Dept. stores all over the USA, and such little things as quality were hardly considerations.

You certainly should be delighted with your press, but after all, it is merited. So far I haven't been to the Univ. to check reviews. I hope to do that soon although years usually intervene between publication and review.

This morning I FINALLY received the hard back copy from Johns Hopkins. Olé.

When will those new editions be published in Spain. How about POESIAS COMPLETAS? Will there be a new edition soon?

Mucho Love -
M. B.
