Dear Doris:

Pax!

At last I think I have you pegged again. I've been trying for so long to locate you. Providing the local postal authorities cooperate, this should reach you this time.

Today a nun from Long Island whom I recently met at a meeting sent me a copy of Bohemia with much about our beloved Gabriela and you in it. I was so grateful. At the meeting we had talked about Gabriela and I begged everyone there to send me anything they could find about her and her death.

I did write to the hospital, but no answer came. Also I wrote to the priest I supposed would have announced her but he wrote saying it was another one, and I have not tried to track that one down yet.

It was with great relief and gratitude that I learned she had been living with you these past years and that you had been so good to her. It must have been one of her biggest blessings to be able to count on so good a friend in these last hard years when all her life she has been so lonely and without anyone who really cared deeply about her.

Did you ever receive the letter I sent in care of the Guaranty Trust Co.? In it were copies of the pictures of us at the time of the Terra Awarding in 1950 when I was so privileged as to be there and to visit with both of you. If you didn't receive it, let me know. I shall send you another set.

The thesis I was doing on her when last we met did actually get finished. I am ashamed that I
