Dear Miss Dana,

Many thanks for your kind letter of February 12th. It was very nice to hear of you again and to know that Mme Mistral is now living not quite so far from Sweden as before. I hope you are having a very good time in Italy and ask you kindly to convey my kindest regards to Mme Mistral.

I very much regret to tell you that there are no more money due on Mme Mistral's books since we last rendered our statements. As you know the contracts stipulate payment of the author's fee for every edition printed on publication of each edition and we have not printed any new editions in the last year.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Karin Marcus
