Ambassador Radomiro Tomic
Chilean Embassy
Washington, D.C.

Dear Radomiro,

Thank you for your letter of November 15th and for the brief resume of the progress of the Christian-Democratic Party in Chile. I have forwarded it on to Jacques, and I know he will be pleased. Would it be possible to ask you to send me another copy of it? I would appreciate it.

Your letter of December 5th arrived, and I will be most happy to do everything I can for Reviste ORFEO. I know this group well, and know their high merit. In fact they honored me by naming me "Relacionadora Internacional". I will send them immediately as much material as I can - a large amount so that they can select from it or use it all. I had promised this to them before, but because of enormous pressures of work I have been unable to get it copied and sent to them. I am doing so immediately, because they have a deadline to meet.

I would appreciate it, dear Tomic, if you could drop them a note also, to let them know you have been in contact with me and that of course I am most eager to help them in every way I can, and that I will have the material off to them within the next few days.

I also received Le Paysan de la Garonne, and am thrilled with it. Jacques has written to me several times and in a letter tells me how glad he was to meet you and Olaya. I had often talked to him about you and he knows what a good friend you were to Gabriela as well as to his Godchild. I was so happy that you and Olaya could share that experience with me.

I have opened CHILENOS UNIQUE in Westport, Connecticut - 35 West State Street (Boston Post Road, near the corner of Riverside Avenue) - this is almost in the heart of town. I opened the shop on November 24th and though I'm certainly not making any money the Chilean imports are being received very enthusiastically, and through this medium I am able to effect a lot of good Public Relations work for Chile. But it has been exhausting work! If any Chileans come up to this area, please tell them to come in and see the shop and visit their "Self-Appointed Cultural and Commercial Representative in Fairfield County" - Anyway, I'm doing my best!

Te mando a ti, a Olaya y a toda la familia un gran abrazo y un beso de Pascua, tu amiga,
