Dear Eduardo Barrios:

You will remember that on June 1st, when I presented the 2322 pages of Gabriela's manuscripts to the Biblioteca Nacional, I spoke to you of the necessity of having copies of certain of these unpublished works, since I intend to publish them in the forthcoming books of Gabriela's which I am editing.

At that time I presented to you Miss Laura Labarca, daughter of the distinguished Chilean, Sr. D. Ricardo Labarca B.. Miss Labarca was of great assistance to me in my various undertakings in Chile. I have authorized her to copy the items which I have selected for publication, the literary rights pertaining to me.

So far I have received no copies of this material, and Miss Labarca informs me that she has not been given access to the manuscripts. My need for these copies is now urgent since the books have almost been completed, and I hope to avoid unnecessary delays in publication. I know you will do everything possible to facilitate Miss Labarca's work with these papers.

I am sending a signed copy of this letter to Miss Laura Labarca so that she can present it to the Library as a written authorization from me. Thank you for your attention in this matter.

It was very nice to see you again. I hope that both you and Mrs. Barrios are enjoying good health.

With kind personal regards,

Doris Dana
