Dear Arlene Francis:

I'll remember that I phoned you about my book on Gabriela Mistral and her poetry. Finally - it's out! The Johns Hopkins Press tells me they have sent you the bound page proofs of "The Selected Poems of Gabriela Mistral" as I had requested.

Enclosed is some information which will give you a better idea of what the book is all about; also copies of the articles I wrote to introduce each of the four sections of the book. I do hope you'll find some time to read these.

The book is scheduled to be in the bookshops on June 7th. I'm sending you this material now in the hope that somehow it will fit in with your schedule.

I'm usually out here in Bridgehampton - (Hildreth Lane, Bridgehampton, New York 11932. Telephone: 516-537-0041). In New York City, my phone is YUkon 9-7972.

With warm personal regards,

Doris Dana

P.S. Attached is a notice about Leora that appeared recently in the Village Voice. She was splendidly bawdy as a retired belly-dancer married to a psychiatrist...!
