Dear Doris:

I have some more information for you and without waiting I'll pass it on.

I've contacted Sanjor Books, Inc. in New York and the Remarkable Book Store in Westport. This covers the stores you specifically suggested except for the Modern Language Book Store in D. C. where I will be next week and Gotham in the City. This last is, I'm afraid, a loss, merely because of credit problems. Even approaching them at this point would only cause greater problems for us until they are able to straighten past business with us.

I've been able to introduce Gabriela to The Pan American Society in Boston with the help of your draft for a news release. I've also mentioned to Mrs. Read your willingness to lecture.

The USIA has requested a copy of the book for review purposes. Since the D. C. office does no direct buying but only sends a kind of newsletter to base libraries throughout the world, anything further on this must wait for bound review copies. Even then, we may never see the results: buying is done through jobbers in which case our billing and shipping departments can't determine the ultimate destination for the book.

The latest word from our production department is that bound books will arrive in our warehouse by May 13. Mrs. Fernandez has confirmed Thursday June 3 for the party. If May 13 now holds, this should give us enough time to have books in New York.

Accompanying this are some copies of correspondence. Copies of the same have gone to Joan Daves.

Sincerely,

Frank Saul
