MARGARET K. McELDERRY BOOKS

April 5, 1974

Miss Doris Dana
Box 784
Hildreth Lane
Bridgehampton, N.Y. 11932

Dear Miss Dana,

It was great to talk to you the other day and to know a little bit of what you've been up to this long time. Miss McElderry was glad to know you hadn't deserted us also. I phoned Susan Meyer, the editor of American Artist, and she was delighted to hear that THE ELEPHANT was in book form and was panting to see it so I sent her a copy of it plus a copy of CRICKETS AND FROGS over by messenger. She said the article on Frasconi would be in the October issue of the magazine and she will be in touch with us if they wish to use any illustrations from these books, which I'm sure she will want to do.

Now that THE ELEPHANT is in bound book form, I think you might like to have back from us your original manuscript and galley of same and I enclose them herewith. It is a stunning book and is beginning to command lots of attention as you'll see from the enclosed review.

With all good wishes to you.

Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Florence Pezeshky
Secretary to Miss McElderry
