Dear Doris, Friend of Ethel Dana.

Your lovely book arrived. Here just in time for me to mail it to granddaughters, Cindy, along with the Christmas packages. I know it will be deeply appreciated.

I wish we could know you personally; perhaps one day we'll meet. We're enjoying knowing the Atkinsons so much.

My personal thanks for going out of your way to mail the book. As it appears to be a gift to Cindy from you, I hope you'll accept this nominal for your expenses involved in mailing, etc.
