Dear Ms. Dana:

Re: MISTRAL: SELECTED POEMS AND PROSE by Gabriela Mistral,
translated by Christiane Jacox Kyle

It was very nice to talk to you today. I have enclosed a copy of the manuscript for your review. As you can see, some of the pieces have not yet been translated (those marked with an asterisk *). Please let us know which pieces may and may not be included in our work.

I have also enclosed a copy of TWENTIETH-CENTURY LATIN AMERICAN POETRY, edited by Stephen Tapscott, which includes some of Miss Mistral's poetry and your translations and of 100 LOVE SONNETS/CIEN SONETOS DE AMOR by Pablo Neruda, also translated by Stephen Tapscott, which has been for some time our best-selling title.

When we have an understanding about which pieces we may publish, we would then like to send you an agreement for signature for the English-language rights for this work. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

With best wishes,

Yours truly,

Laura Young Bost
