3 JANUARY

Dear Doris:

I need not tell you how shattered I felt after your phone-call. I warned Marie-lise not to call you; she intended to call in order to tell you that she was not coming this weekend on account of her exams. They are set for the 11th and the poor thing is supposed to uphold her thesis on dear Gabriela. You know how much we love Gabriela; so words could not tell how I feel. However, if you feel like talking to someone in these days of trial, please don't hesitate to call me (PL 4-1234, ext.3502). If the office is crowded, I can easily call you back from the booth.

I don't know how to express it in English, but I am "de tout coeur" with you. You have done and are doing everything that is humanly possible to do. The rest is in the hands of God.

Sincerely,

Jean
