Dear Doris ~

Just heard that Gabriela died about two days ago. The news knocked me out. I am going to remember her as I last saw her down at that boneyard on the Miracle Mile. She looked so sweet & lovely that evening and so harmoniously alive. Gabriela always gave me the impression of being so yes, younger than she was — I guess because she was so intellectually alert. I guess you must be completely under at this point. If I can help pull me up, will you?

I was pretty sick in Dec. but am okay now. It was an infection but it really knocked me out for a few weeks. If it hadn't been for that I might
