

Dear Doris:

As I remember things I shall jot them down:

- 1) - Gabriela spoke to me about sending money for material for Jin Jin to the Franciscans. (But she said she was "too busy")
- 2) - the state of the Muchel manuscripts:
 - a) In the loose leaf book, Poema de Chile, are all the typewritten versions of the Poema (one copy of each - what remained of the latest version [with the exception of "Marta Acuniga"
2 versions, and "La Ruta" - many versions])
 - b) on the unruled paper are some copies that I made from the cuadernos. Gabriela has not given over any of them with the exception of "Valla de Chile".
The copies I made are faulty and should be given over.
Some are incomplete.
 - c) In the sealed envelope (sealed to keep it from you) are copies & old versions of the Poema de Chile
to be stored.
- 3) I went through all the MS cuadernos of you and noted the title (first line when no title) of everything (except letters & poems) in them. All that are noted in the Index - poems in MS not copied - and the number of the cuadernos where they may be found for instance Helichos 1, 1, 4, 7
"Pa la casa" . . .
more there are 2 versions in cuaderno number one
and one version in six and seven.
When you go through these it might be well to mark the latest version. I had no time to compare them. Gabriela could decide on the best version if she would!
