Dear Miss Dana:

The Magazine "Hablemos" which has great circulation in Latin America will publish an article and pictures of the 12 women that have receive the award of "Woman of the Americas" given by this organization. Miss Gabriela Mistral was the first woman selected, in 1946.

We have no picture of Miss Mistral in our files and I am writing to you in the hope that you might be able to supply us with a picture for this purpose. If so, please communicate with us as soon as possible as the material for this article is ready and we are just waiting to get the picture that would be suitable, that is, a picture of Miss Mistral taken before her illness. It does not have to be a portrait picture.

Should you not be able to help us in this respect, please let us know at your earliest possible convenience, so that we may try other sources. The Chilean Consulate referred us to you.

Thanking you for your kind consideration, I am

Sincerely yours,
