Dear Doris,

Here is photostat of a letter received from RCA. Since the reaction of the Columbia people was not awfully encouraging either, Marie and I feel that we would be well off to accept RCA's suggestion, as detailed in the last paragraph. I understand that RCA Mexicana is a reliable company and, if the record really sells in the Spanish-speaking countries as well as we hope, we would be sure of getting the royalties and have the benefit of RCA's wide-flung connections to police the distribution.

What do you think? Please call me as soon as you can.

Yours,

Joan Daves - EB
