Dear Dr. Larson:

In the fall, 1981, number eleven of: Report on Chilean University Life which we have just received, there appears on page 9 an interesting article entitled "Literary Heritage of Gabriela Mistral". I attach a copy of same, although I am certain you are already familiar with the work. I should like to know whether the general index referred to for distribution to study centers and institutions of higher learning might now be ready.

As perhaps I told you, we are working here on an index, with quite complete abstracts, to the correspondence of Dr. Luis Alberto Sánchez. Interestingly enough, we have 16 holograph letters from Gabriela in the Sánchez collection; most have no dates and placing them in chronological order has posed a problem. In any case, whatever information you could supply on the index prepared by Ms. Doris Dana and Professor Gastón van den Bussche would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

Very truly yours,
Donald C. Henderson
