Miss Sylvia Horst
Chilean Embassy
1736 Massachusetts Avenue
Washington, D. C.

Dear Miss Horst:

Things were so very hectic when I was in Washington, that I was never able to get in touch with Ambassador Tomic. However, I will be writing him within the next few days.

I want to thank you especially for sending me the material on the new Chilean Program in Washington. I am always extremely interested in receiving information of this kind.

My good friend, Ignacio Bravo, Consul General of Chile in Los Angeles, has just sent me Issue No. 17 of "News From Chile", published by the Chilean Embassy. I do not want to impose, but would it be possible for me to receive this Summary regularly. If there should be any charge for this, I would of course be most happy to pay for it. It is a publication which would be most helpful to me in my own work.

With warm regards,

Doris Dana
