729 East Annapolis Street
Santa Barbara, California
June 8th, 1948

Mr. E. L. Byrum
County Tax Collector
Hall of Justice
211 West Temple St.,
Los Angeles, California

Dear Mr. Byrum:

I am enclosing herewith Miss Lucila Godoy's check for the sum of $49.11, covering the second installment for the year 1947-1948 of taxes on her property at 1905 So. Santa Vista, Santa Barbara, California.

I am the one responsible for not having paid the said delinquent taxes, as I am Miss Godoy's private secretary and I always attend to her business affairs. However, I had been very ill with a nervous breakdown and only few days ago I returned to Santa Barbara.

Please be informed that Miss Godoy's residence is at the above address and the receipt as well as next year's statement should be sent to Santa Barbara.

Very sincerely yours,

Consuelo Salera
(Private Secretary to Miss Lucila Godoy, Consul of Chile at Santa Barbara)
