

Sept. 25, 1961

Dearest Palma,

The signed document arrived safely, and I am now enclosing the Estate check to you in the amount of $5,711.95 (dollars). Please let me know when it arrives, as of course I worry about the mails. Forgive me for saying again that it was Gabriela's wish that you keep this amount for your own emergencies -- yours and Nic's. To do anything else with it would seem to me to be negating Gabriela's deep and personal wishes.

Also don't forget that besides the South American literary royalties that Montegrando receives, there is still the house in La Serena, worth several thousand dollars, but so far there is nobody to whom this capital can be entrusted toward the building of a school in Montegrando. Until such time, it is safer just to collect the rents for the children.

I was so happy to hear of your position as Directora de Universidades y Escuelas Incorporadas. And I know how happy Gabriela would be!

The news of Dag Hammarskjöld's death has left us stunned and shocked. Gabriela admired and loved him so much, as did I. She always referred to him as "mi lindo sueco..." His passing has left so many of us with a deep feeling of pessimism.

Tengo tantos deseos de hablar contigo. Espero que en el futuro próximo vuelvo a Mexico por mas tiempo y con mas paz. Grandes abrazos para mi querido Nic, y te beso, querida, con todo mi alma.

P.S. Royalties that accumulate from North America and from Europe will be distributed to you and myself whenever they amount to about $500. for each of us.
