Dear Madam,

I have received your birthday telegram and write to tell you of the pleasure it gave me. Unfortunately, I do not read Spanish, but I have read a number of translations of your poems and I know that your heart is in the right place. There is no street address on your telegram, but I am taking a chance and sending this in care of The Los Angeles Times, and if they do not find it I will try another copy through the Authors' League of America.

Sincerely
Upton Sinclair.
