Dear Sir

I read with interest your article headed 'Las obsesiones de Hitler al Mundo' while without doubt your article is exceedingly good propaganda for the German cause and will certainly give great pleasure to the office of German propaganda in Chile - namely the German embassy - I would like to point out to you that I consider your article unpatriotic to your native country, Chile.

There is no doubt that when Hitler in the event of his winning the world war, would turn his activities once the English and French situation were liquidated to South America.

In a very short time the great liberator of his oppressed race, a race unfortunately for other countries
