Monday, April 30th, 1957
Queen Juliana's birthday

Jack-dear,

Please excuse my writing in pencil. My pen is bad, impossible to write with.

I've just come home from the reception at the legation, where cocktails and many people made one very salutary. But I didn't tell anybody our sweet secret!

Very many thanks for the tickets. My <sup>old</sup> friend and I enjoyed the picture. So much the more I would have enjoyed it if you had been with me.

I really hope your situation will be arranged soon, so that we can see each other whenever we want to, without obstacles.

You are always in my thoughts, day and night, darling. I'm looking anxiously forward to our next rendez-vous, which I hope will be very soon.

Ever yours
Mary
