

El trabajo de la mujer proletaria y doméstica es muy pesado, poco comprendido en su trascendencia y, para colmo, vejado en forma a veces inhumana. Muchas mujeres han luchado una vida entera por levantar el fuero de nuestro sexo en todas sus formas y también en lo concerniente al empleo doméstico.

Le saluda en amiga y servidora,

Matilde Ladrón de Guevara

Cartas al Director

TRABAJADORAS DOMÉSTICAS

Dear Director:
To dear Matilde, I send you this letter to inform you of the situation of the workers in Chile, in particular the domestic workers, who are subjected to a great deal of exploitation and abuse. They work long hours, receive very low pay, and have no rights or guarantees. They are treated like slaves. This is one of the main causes of problems, as it is difficult for them to earn enough money to support their families. They are also subjected to a great deal of harassment and discrimination at work, which makes it difficult for them to find decent work.

At the moment, we are trying to organize an organization of domestic workers to defend their rights and improve their working conditions. We are currently in the process of forming a union, which will be able to negotiate better wages and working conditions. We are also working to raise awareness about the rights of domestic workers and to promote their rights through education and training.

With all my love and admiration for your work, I hope that you will continue to support us in our struggle for justice and equality.

Yours sincerely,
Matilde Ladrón de Guevara

Editorial Note: This letter is a reproduction of a letter written by Matilde Ladrón de Guevara to the editor of the newspaper "El Mercurio". It discusses the working conditions of domestic workers in Chile and calls for their protection and rights. The letter is signed "Matilde Ladrón de Guevara".
