

Eliezer Pollock

"Moralistic critique"

Interview

Eliezer Pollock is a member of the political party "Moralistic critique".

The organization's main political concern is supporting the right to free speech and freedom of assembly. It also wants to increase the role of the people and the government in the protection of the environment and the promotion of democracy. Eliezer says that environmental issues have been given too little attention by the media and that they are often presented in a negative way. He believes that the government should take more responsibility for the environment and that citizens should be more involved in decision-making processes.

Eliezer believes that the government should do more to protect the environment and that citizens should be more involved in decision-making processes.
