

CHILDREN'S LITERATURE

...and the child's own experience of reading. The book is a collection of essays by a number of leading children's literature scholars, including Peter Hunt, Alison Pepler, and others. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the study of children's literature.

The book is divided into two main sections. The first section, 'The Child as Reader', explores the ways in which children's literature is shaped by the needs and interests of its young audience. The second section, 'The Child as Author', examines the ways in which children's literature has been used to explore and challenge the boundaries of the child's imagination.

The book is written in a clear and accessible style, and is suitable for both students and scholars. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the study of children's literature.
