La Plataforma de Organizaciones Sociales y Ciudadanas (POSC) denuncia la falta de cumplimiento de las normas establecidas en el Decreto 1000, que establece la obligación de garantizar la ejecución de los planes de desarrollo y presupuesto para las autoridades locales y las entidades descentralizadas. La Plataforma considera que el cumplimiento de las normas establecidas es fundamental para garantizar la transparencia y la eficiencia en la administración pública.

During all its time in France, this was never lost sight of, and the French government, as well as the English, were very anxious to have it returned. The French government, however, had no power to do so, and therefore the English government had to take the steps necessary to have it returned.

With a few exceptions, though, the data presented here provide a relatively clear picture of the development of the law of the case. The evidence suggests an evolution from an initial emphasis on the protection of investors' interests to one that increasingly emphasizes the protection of creditors' interests, with a significant shift occurring around 1930.

The government has taken no sufficient steps towards ensuring its right to be able to take such measures as may be necessary and possible under law to handle those who will be detained. The detainees are held in secret locations for indefinite periods of time without trial. Detainees are subjected to abusive treatment and torture. This is being done by other detainees. There appears to be no independent body to monitor all the actions taken by the guards. There is no panel that monitors conditions in those facilities.
The detainees are being held without trial and without any hope of justice or freedom. In this case the detainees are not given any protection. There is no habeas corpus. They are not recognized. There are no due process of justice and equality. There is no right to a fair trial.

The movement has been around since the 1960s and 1970s. There are different branches though. There are people who are more religious and there are people who are more political.
