Imperial College London, and the Institute of Population Health, University of Western Ontario, Canada, have been granted a new government agency, called the Canadian Institutes of Health Research, to administer the new funding.

ANSWER The answer is 1000.

the postscript, according to which when we consider the way of life of modern people there are plenty of indications of their growing bad manners. They seem indifferent to the feelings of others, showing themselves as if they were the only ones equal among themselves and everybody. In fact, they don't care for everybody else, but they care very little about themselves and they expect to be treated as if they were
