

VICTORIA

THE EMPIRESS OF INDIA, LEAVING VICTORIA, MAY 1, 1917.

May Departure of Ship "Victoria"

The departure of the ship "Victoria" from Victoria, B.C., on May 1, 1917, was a significant event for the local community. The ship, a large passenger liner, was seen leaving the harbor, carrying many passengers and cargo. The departure was marked by a large crowd of people gathered on the waterfront, watching the ship as it sailed away. The ship's departure was also reported in the local newspapers, highlighting its importance in the region's maritime trade.

The ship "Victoria" is a well-known vessel in the Pacific Northwest, and its departure from Victoria is a regular occurrence. The ship is known for its speed and reliability, and it has a long history of serving the region. The departure of the ship is a testament to the ship's role in the local economy and its importance to the community. The ship's departure is also a reminder of the ship's role in the region's history and its contribution to the local economy.

Hoy lanzan el libro "Victoria" [artículo].

Libros y documentos

FECHA DE PUBLICACIÓN

1996

FORMATO

Artículo

DATOS DE PUBLICACIÓN

Hoy lanzan el libro "Victoria" [artículo]. il.

FUENTE DE INFORMACIÓN

Biblioteca Nacional Digital

INSTITUCIÓN

Biblioteca Nacional

UBICACIÓN

Avenida Libertador Bernardo O'Higgins 651, Santiago, Región Metropolitana, Chile