

Luis Alfredo Rivera Rodriguez

Former member of Los Angeles Police Department's elite anti-terrorist unit

Los Angeles (UPI) — A former member of the Los Angeles Police Department's elite anti-terrorist unit has been charged with plotting to assassinate President Bill Clinton in 1995. The plot was allegedly part of a larger scheme to destabilize the Clinton administration and the U.S. economy. Rivera Rodriguez, 42, was arrested in Los Angeles last week. He is accused of recruiting other former LAPD officers and providing them with training and resources for the assassination attempt. The plot was allegedly uncovered by a confidential source of the FBI. Rivera Rodriguez is being held in custody and faces charges of conspiracy to commit murder and obstruction of justice. His attorney has not yet responded to requests for comment.
