name of the person who helped you get into the school? I'm curious to know.

1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of the "Three Principles of the People" (Sanmin Zhuyi) as the foundation of the Republic of China. It emphasizes that these principles are not just theoretical concepts but practical guides for building a modern nation.

2. The second part of the text focuses on the role of the government and the people in realizing these principles. It argues that the government must be responsible and accountable, while the people must be educated and empowered to participate in the governance of the country.

3. The third part of the text discusses the challenges facing the Republic of China at the time, particularly in the areas of economic development and social reform. It suggests that the government should implement policies to promote economic growth and social justice, while the people should work together to overcome these challenges.

4. The fourth part of the text concludes by reaffirming the commitment to the Three Principles of the People and the vision of a modern, democratic Republic of China. It expresses confidence that the future of the country is bright and that the people will continue to strive for progress and prosperity.
