AUSPICIOSO INGRESO DE ENS BORDS A LA NARRATIVA CHILENA

and the like. The first is the most important, as it is the one which gives the best results. It consists of a series of steps, each of which is designed to remove a specific type of impurity. The first step is the removal of the organic matter, which is done by heating the water in a furnace. This is followed by the removal of the inorganic matter, which is done by passing the water through a series of filters. The final step is the removal of the dissolved gases, which is done by passing the water through a series of tanks.
