

representatives as occupying positions. It has been suggested that the most effective form of leadership is the one from which the people have different opinions, since accepting other's different viewpoints can help us understand life in a complete manner and also the situations that will be. The Characteristics of the best leaders are as follows, all known as Great Leaders and Great Thinkers. The important traits are, determination, enthusiasm, intelligence, knowledge, open mind, and Acceptance towards different views. Since the Great Leaders usually try to Persuade and Encourage. Not only that, but also, the great leaders have the ability to Motivate, persuading themselves and others. Great Examples of Great Leaders, like Abraham Lincoln, John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Nelson Mandela, Mahatma Gandhi, etc. are the ones who have shown the world that they are the ones who can lead the world. The Presidents, the Country Chairmen, the Prime Ministers, the Prime Ministers of India, the Prime Ministers of America, the Prime Ministers of France, etc. are the ones who have shown the world that they are the ones who can lead the world.
