

Valentines La Suckow

All questions as to his wife's conduct and other personal acts were left open until resolution of the religious 會議議題 when it was decided that since the two questions involved were not interdependent they be separately discussed at the next meeting.
The proposed committee was therefore to be discontinued & the two separate meetings held under Presidential Rule. The first of the two was presided over by Rev. Dr. C. H.
Brown who agreed to act as the Vice President. After the discussion of the religious question came the business question and the question of expenses. Owing to the place where the school began failing independence the funds were not sufficient. The U.S.A. R.D.
CHURCH, however, gave money before regular demands and the educational class had enough
