That's where there is a great, big problem. And that's where people have been getting into trouble. And that's where we have to be careful. And that's where we have to be smart. And that's where we have to be brave. And that's where we have to be strong. And that's where we have to be wise. And that's where we have to be kind. And that's where we have to be honest. And that's where we have to be true. And that's where we have to be good. And that's where we have to be great.
