

Waltham Feb. 31st 1842. ³

My dear Fido.

On the morning I shall start for the winning campaign - one of the most dramatic & critical of my life, which I think that I should never ^{have} attempted had I of even any disposition on the part of the present government to have done me justice. Genl. Lewis says that I shall be smart & vigorous & that he will use all the influence that he has with Buller to do me justice - but that he is not in the most intimate friendship with his Excellency.

You must my dear Fido assist me in this new undertaking with confidential men - the makes that I wrote to you about Maria to my leaving South - I am sorry to find that Dr. Fancher has withdrawn my gun has the question out of which I am very much in doubt of - I leave this letter with Maria & as also that of Palmer & as also of Helen for the
