Dear Miss Mistral:

We enclose our check for $100.00 in payment for your article. In case we are able to place this for magazine publication at a figure higher than this sum, we will send you the balance above $100.00 when it is received. Mr. Herring would write you himself, but he is now in South America.

Will you be so kind as to return the enclosed receipts, signing each one, by air mail? We will greatly appreciate your courtesy in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

C. A. Hutchinson
