Dear Senorita Mistral,

Your friends of the Club are delighted that you came to our meeting last night.

I have been enjoying your poems in the anthologies,
and, since I, too, feel the humanitarian concern,
I find them doubly worth while.

With warmest wishes from all the members of the Club, I am,

Cordially yours,

Joseph Joel Keith.

P.S. We were glad to have your friend, Miss Palarose, too - a charming addition to our party.
