Dear Gabriella Mistral:

Greetings! We are hoping you will be with us in The Poets' Garden when we celebrate the birth of EDWIN MARKHAM, April 20th, at 2 o'clock, (Sunday afternoon) 1947.

Your many friends among the Poets here are anxious to meet you.

Please come, if possible, and bring your friends. We will be so happy to see you.

Please write me a line at your earliest convenience.

We would like to present you on our program and have a few words from you, three to five minutes.

Berta Singerman told me about you and gave me a picture which I cherish. I have read your poems and used some of them in my lecture-recital, "Women Poets of Today."

I look forward to the pleasure and honor of meeting you in person.

Yours in Consecration to Poetry,

Ruth Le Prade
