Dear Gariella Mistral:

I had such a happy visit with you. I am now working on a sketch about you and your work for my new book on world pioneers. I recently located copies of two of your books of poetry. I am still trying to find Desolation. Would you be kind enough to autograph these two for me?
I inclose postage. I will treasure them.

The sketch that I wrote on our friend, Raphael "eskin, will appear this summer in "The Christian Century".
Looking forward to visiting with you again,
I am

Cordially yours,

Robert M. Bartlett
