Dear Miss Dana:

I was sorry to miss you during my recent visit with Gabriella Mistral. I found her to be an inspiring personality and I am eager to write a worthy study on her life and work for the book I am writing for the T Y Crowell Company of New York on contemporary leaders of the world.

I have not been able to find much good material to date. If there are any things you can mail me, I will read them, makes notes and send back to you promptly. Possibly you can loan me some data and also refer me to scurces. I am looking for an English translation of "Desolation". I understand some of her poems are translated in "Freedom in the Americas" by Angel del Rio, Columbia University Press, "Some Spanish American Poets", by Alice S Blackwell, University of Penns., "The Nobel Prize Treasury" edited by Marshall McClintock, Doubleday.

I should like to have a small glossy print of one of her photographs. Thanking you for the help that you can give me in this project, I am, with kind good wishes to you both,

Cordially yours,
