Dear ~~Sir~~ Madam,

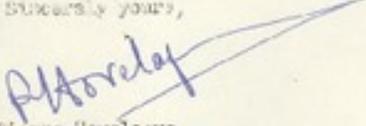

I beg to draw your attention to the forthcoming World Conference of Organisations to be held in Rome from April 2nd - 7th under the auspices of the World Movement for World Federal Government.

At this consultative gathering delegates from the member organizations of the World Movement will meet with representatives of a number of national and international non-governmental organizations who wish to study the conditions of world peace and unity. The Executive Committee of the World Movement will be greatly honoured if you accept their invitation to take part in the work of this Conference, which may become the springboard for an important action for world unity and law on the part of non-governmental organizations. Under separate cover we are sending you a pamphlet containing information on the Conference.

The American Express Company, which is handling hotel reservations for delegates to the Conference, will make arrangements for you if you so wish.

Hoping we shall have the pleasure of seeing you in Rome, I beg to remain,

Sincerely yours,

 Pierre Hovelague
 Secretary General.
