Dear Miss Dana

On January 9, 1958, we wrote to remind you the planned Spanish edition of the FUSIAS by Gabriela Mistral, but we have not yet heard from you about this matter.

Meanwhile, as a result of our steps taken in order to know the present situation of Gabriela Mistral's will, the Mexican Embassy in Cuba has confirmed us that you are the testamentary executor and that you would probably allow this edition.

If this is true, we wonder whether you would allow us to bring out the said edition and to deposit the corresponding royalties in a bank account in behalf of you or of the heirs until the will is probated.

We are finishing the series of Nobel Prize winners and should be very grateful for a quick resolution of this matter, as it is most regrettable that one of the few Spanish speaking authors having been awarded this Prize lacks in our catalog.

Looking forward to hear from you soon, we are,

Faithfully yours,
