Dear Miss Daves:

Thank you so much for your letter of May 7. Mr. Goellner is on vacation, but we were able to reach him by phone to read him your message. He is very pleased with what it contained, as I am.

When Mr. Goellner returns to the office on Monday he will revise the contract and send a new one to you at once.

Until then, I shall simply say that we are all delighted that things are going forward with the book, and that we look forward to receiving Miss Dana's manuscript as soon as it is ready.

Sincerely,

Margot Schutt
