Dear Barbara:

Thank you for your letter of July 23rd and for the promotional material which you so kindly sent me. Both were greatly appreciated. I, too, enjoyed our meeting so much, and feel sure it will move on to a concrete and happy transaction.

I have answered Jack regarding the proposed contract which he sent me. There are questions regarding secondary rights which I am turning over to my agent, Joan Daves, for her good advice. As soon as I receive her recommendations, I will send them on to Jack immediately. Happily I do not see any difficulty regarding the publication we discussed.

Thank you, Barbara, for your warm interest. I am most enthusiastic about this project, and look forward to seeing you all in Baltimore in the near future. In the meantime, translations are going well.

With all good wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Doris Dana
