Miss Doris Dana

Pound Ridge, New York

Dear Doris:

I am delighted to hear that you are back on this side of the Atlantic so that you can be easily reached.

Señor Porrás has not written again, but I assume he is looking forward to your reply. As one of the oldest and most respected publishers in Mexico, he will understand the difficulties involved in making a contract that will be satisfactory to his firm^{and} at the same time safeguard the interests of Gabriela's estate.

You are certainly a shining example of what a good executor should be, and I am quite certain that Señor Porrás appreciates the opportunity of dealing with you.

Be sure to let me know ahead of time when you are planning to be in Washington. It is always a joy to see you.

Cordially yours,

Concha Romero James
