RE: DELTA

Dear Joan,

I am herewith returning the letter from DELTA, August 29th, 1967, a copy of which I have kept for my files.

I have searched carefully for the list of poems translated into Portuguese, and they are not here. Perhaps you still have them in your files since I do not remember receiving such a list after my return from Europe in October.

In any event, I do not see that it matters since DELTA and you are in agreement on the royalties and the contract, and the choice of poems I will leave to their discretion anyway. On this basis, please go ahead with the contract as soon as possible.

As a matter of courtesy, would you request that they send me a copy of the Introduction as well as a copy of the Bibliography, prior to publication. The Introduction for obvious reasons; the bibliography in case they may have overlooked some publications, particularly POEMA DE CHINA.

But go ahead with the contract.

Best always,

Doris Dana

P.S. Letter re Aguilar being sent separately.
