Dear Mr. Levine:

A short time ago I received a letter written by Barry Wallenstein to the Johns Hopkins Press last September requesting a photograph of Gabriela Mistral to accompany his article to be published in the January issue of THE CARIBBEAN REVIEW. Johns Hopkins Press had no photos in their files so they sent it on to me and it strayed in the forwarding process. I have been traveling and have recently arrived to stay for three months on the island of Grenada, W.I. A photo has now been sent from my files in Long Island, and here it is - alas! I am afraid too late for your Jan. issue.

When Mr. Wallenstein's article appears, I would very much appreciate receiving a copy. Would you be so kind as to send it to me at my Grenada address where I shall be staying until March 13th.

I am here working on a second book of translations of Gabriela's poetry. It occurs to me that your magazine might be interested in some material from this book (bilingual) prior to publication. Or would you want to receive a review copy? You probably know my book "Selected Poems of Gabriela Mistral" (Johns Hopkins Press) which appeared last year and which won a P.E.N. Club citation. If not, please let me know and I will ask that it be sent to you. Do you know "Crickets and Frogs" (Athensum) which has just appeared - a fable for children by Gabriela hitherto unpublished even in Spanish - translated and adapted by me and illustrated by Antonio Frasconi.

After March 13th, 1973, I will return home. My home address is Box 784, Hildreth Lane, Bridgehampton, New York 11932. Until then my address in Grenada is: c/o James Needham, "The Flamboyant", Box 214, St. George's, GRENADA, WEST INDIES. I hope to hear from you, and again I am sorry if this photo has not arrived in time for the publication of Mr. Wallenstein's article.

Sincerely yours,

Doris Dana
